ENGAGEMENT

The Appalachian Homestead Network offers a range of engaging activities, including workshops, trainings, and outdoor adventures, to keep members actively involved. These hands-on experiences provide valuable opportunities for learning and skill development, enhancing the community's self-sufficiency and resilience.

FRIENDS OF APPALACHIA

Friends of Appalachia, LTD, a nonprofit organization operating under 501(c)(3), promotes a well-rounded healthy lifestyle for the rural Appalachian population through sustainable practices, educational programs, hands-on teaching, and regional resources.

COMMUNITY

Our involvement in the community extends beyond our network, as we actively participate in local events and initiatives, fostering collaboration and support among homesteaders and like-minded individuals.

@NEGAHomestead

Experience the thrill of hands-on workshops, dynamic trainings, and exciting outdoor adventures with the Appalachian Homestead Network, enriching our community's self-sufficiency and resilience.
